3. Fees and payment methods

4. Personal laptop

Participants are required to bring their own laptop with an up-to-date installation of Eclipse.

5. Variations of processing

In certain reasonable cases, Innoopract is entitled to appoint a replacement instructor, marginally modify the training contents or change to the course date or location. In these cases, Innoopract will notify the course participants in a reasonable time. Should a participant consequently not be able to attend the training, he may withdraw from the contract and will be exempt from the course fees and any payments already made will be refunded. Further claims will not be recognized.

6. Quorum of participants

Should less than 2 participants register for a course, Innoopract reserves the right to cancel the course. In this case Innoopract will arrange an alternative course date. Should any clause of this agreement be totally or partially invalid or lose its legal effect at a future date, the validity of the remaining clauses is not affected. By adjustment of contract, the invalid clause is to be replaced by an appropriate arrangement, which economically approaches best to what the parties to the contract would have agreed upon, if they had been aware of the clause's invalidity.
